

QNP Nomenclature

Common Name	Alternate Name/s	Description
Legacy Systems
Fatwire	-	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The content management system for the existing QNP (QNP 1.0). Often (erroneously) used to mean QNP in general terms; QNP alone remains hosted on Fatwire. Decommissioned as of 9/2019 and replaced with H-CMS.
QNP (QualityNet Portal)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> QNP 1.0 Legacy QNP Qualitynet.org QualityNet Public Site QualityNet Portal 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The public-facing informational website at qualitynet.org (unauthenticated). End-users visit the site for program information, download specifications manuals, etc. HSAG and other CMS contractors create and submit content to the content managers who use Oracle Fatwire to manage the site. Decommissioned as of 9/2019 and replaced with QNP 2.0.
QSP (QualityNet Secure Portal)	-	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> QSP was independent of and not associated with QNP 2.0 (different code bases). As of December 2020, QSP is decommissioned; therefore, the QSP links on QNP 2.0 redirect to a public Confluence page noting the decommissioning details.
Replacement Systems (Cloud-based)
H-CMS (Headless Content Management System)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Headless CMS HCMS 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The headless content management system is a content management system (CMS) built from the ground up as a content repository that makes content accessible via a RESTful API for display on any device. It contains a content-management-ui for adding programs/metadata etc. as part of H-CMS. H-CMS is not the QNP replacement – it is the true and actual Fatwire framework replacement. ADOs may integrate with H-CMS as part of their work; it is independent of H-CMS and QNP 2.0. In Prod as of 5/2019.
QNP 2.0 Admin UI	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> QNP Admin UI 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The content-serving interface that integrates with the H-CMS. Content Manager/s will log into the QNP Admin UI to manage/update content in QNP 2.0. In Prod as of 9/2019.
QNP 2.0	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Qualitynet.org (replacement) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The replacement for QNP (QNP 1.0). Redesigned public-facing website including an updated UI, responsive design, etc. – the H-CMS, QualityNet.org replacement Admin UI, and QualityNet.org replacement public facing screens collectively comprise the QNet 2.0 and therefore the QNP replacement. In Prod as of 9/2019.
